

Position

Punch Press Operator – 1st or 2nd Shift

Location

Minneapolis, MN

Description

This position is responsible for creating parts based on specified guidelines by operating Punch Press equipment.

Qualifications

- Must be able to safety set-up and operate a punch press.
- The ideal candidates should have five years of operating punch press experience in a close tolerance manufacturing environment.
- Knowledge and ability to select and install proper tooling.
- Perform work to quality standards and time restraints.
- Attention to detail is required; improper set-up could be a critical safety error.
- Work requires ability to read blue prints, math skills and process information and record all data.
- Perform both visual and dimensional inspections to quality standards.
- Follow proper procedures and instructions to ensure quality and safety.
- Work requires to be proficient with hands/feet and being able to stand for long periods of time.
- Good oral and written communication skills; detail to quality standards and ability to task concentrate.

Contact

Submit resume to: hmn@daytonrogers.com