

Position: Project Manager

Location: Arlington, TX

Description: Responsible for planning, administering and completing new product introduction process for production with representatives from Engineering, Sales, Manufacturing and Customer Service. Main contact between Customers in areas of project management to ensure customer satisfaction as top priority.

Qualifications:

- Preferred candidates with Bachelor's degree in Mechanical or Industrial Engineering.
- Experience in metal forming industry and stamping, with knowledge of welding, fabrication, machining and fixturing.
- Advanced skills in Solid Works and CAD systems.
- Ability to read and understand engineering prints/documentation.
- Firm grasp of lean principles; Kaizen, Root cause analysis, VSM.
- Strong working knowledge of MS Project, Excel, Word and AS400.
- Ability to multi-task, manage multiple projects through prototype and production.
- Excellent oral and written communication skills; ability to communicate, read and comprehend information effectively.
- Team player and ability to work under pressure.
- Great level of attention and detail is required for quality standards.
- Follow proper procedures and instructions to ensure quality and safety.

Contact: Submit resume to: hrtx@daytonrogers.com