

Position: 2nd Shift – Turret Operator

Location: Arlington, TX

Description:

- This position is responsible for creating parts based on stipulated guidelines by operating Turret manufacturing equipment.

Qualifications: (use bulleted points as needed)

- The ideal candidate should have five years of operating a Turret Press experience in a manufacturing environment.
- Ability to operate turret punch press to punch holes in metal sheets, plates, strips or bars.
- Work involves insert, align, and lock punches in turret using proper tooling.
- Knowledge of selecting proper die clearances based on material requirements.
- Able to set-up tooling, load programs and set machine parameters.
- Requires fast-paced environment work with frequently changing priorities.
- Basic ability to read blue prints, math skills, and process information and record all data.
- Perform both visual and dimensional inspections to quality standards.
- Good oral and written communication skills; ability to communicate, read and comprehend information effectively.
- Great level of attention and detail is required for quality standards.
- Follow proper procedures and instructions to ensure quality and safety.
- Work requires to be proficient with hands/feet and being able to stand for long periods of time.

Contact: Submit resume to: hrtx@daytonrogers.com